Mark Twain

Peter loved being with Jesus. Jesus walked from town to town, telling everyone about God's love. He wanted to follow Jesus forever.

But Jesus told his friends, "Soon I am going to be arrested for the new way I am sharing God's love. Then I am going to be killed."

Peter was horrified! "Don't say that! I don't want bad things to happen to you!"

Jesus answered him, "That's enough! You just want things to be easy and safe. But sharing God's love isn't easy or safe all the time. If you love me, you will want to show love for God and other people no matter what happens."

Peter hung his head. "I'm sorry, Jesus. I'll ask God to help me be brave so I can keep on doing God's work."

It can be hard to be brave, can't it?
