

Scientists have found that when people care for each other (like Jesus did), people live happier lives!

Color That Stuff

Draw a picture what JOY is for you! It might be something fun, or something else that brings others happiness.

The Season of Easter

EASTER

John 15

Jesus told his friends, "I have a new commandment for you."

Susanna frowned. "Don't we have enough rules?"

Jesus laughed. "You'll like this one, I think."

"What is it?" asked Bartholomew.

"Love one another as I have loved you," Jesus said.

"That actually sounds fun," said Susanna, but Jesus replied, "Well, it's harder than you think."

"How?" asked Bartholomew.

"Loving other people the way I love you takes work. It means making sure they have what they need. It means not always getting what you want."

Susanna frowned. "Okay, maybe not so fun."

"Oh, but it is fun!" Jesus said with a big smile. "When you love others the way I love you, your life will be filled with joy!"

"That sounds great," Bartholomew said. "We'll be sure to try to follow your new commandment!"

Great Big Word

Love Your Neighbor

Doesn't mean you need to agree with your neighbor on everything, but care for them.

Spot the Differences

Can you find the 5 differences between the pictures? You'll have to look hard! All the circus performers are "neighbors." They spend lots of time together like family.

TICTACTOE

Nice Quote!

They say a person needs just three things to be truly happy in this world: someone to love, something to do, and something to hope for.

— Tom Bodett

Make an effort this week to say "I love you" to someone you care about at least once per day.
