Mark 4:35-41

Jesus Stills the Storm

Jesus had spent all day teaching and healing the crowds and he was very tired. He said to his friends, "Let's go across the lake to find a quiet place away from the crowds."

"Good idea, Jesus," said Peter, and they got into the boat.

Even before the boat left the shore, Jesus was sound asleep.

Soon, a big storm rolled in. Wind blew. Lightning flashed. Rain poured. Waves rolled. Jesus' friends were terrified.

"We're going to sink!" shouted James.

"Wake up, Jesus! We're going to drown!" Andrew yelled.

Jesus sat up and rubbed his eyes. He looked out at the storm and said, "Peace. Be still." Just like that, the storm stopped. "Don't be afraid," Jesus said. "Just believe in me."

"Wow," his friends thought, amazed. "Who is this guy that storms listen to him?"

REMEMBER THIS

JESUS BRINGS PEACE

There are rainstorms, but sometimes there are storms in our hearts. Jesus calms those, too.

There's an exciting storm and shipwreck story (everyone is okay!) in Acts 27. Ask a grown-up to read it with you and talk about it together.
