

We know Peter's name for what it became (Peter).
Before, he was called Simon!

Color That Stuff

Color the picture of what Simon Peter may have looked like.

All the people were curious about Jesus. They had never known anyone who taught the things he taught, or who healed the sick like he did.

"How can he do these things?" a woman asked. "Who is he really?"

"Maybe he's John the Baptist, back from the dead," another woman answered.

A man nodded. "Could be. Or maybe he's the prophet Elijah come back to life."

"Or the prophet Jeremiah," another man said.

Jesus' friends told Jesus all the things they had heard about him.

"Who do you think I am?" Jesus asked them.

Peter knew the answer in his heart. "You are God's Son, the one God promised would save the world!"

Jesus smiled a big smile. "Spot on! You are amazing! One day you will lead my church."

Peter

The name Peter comes from Greek. The name means "rock".

This week, see how many different types of rocks you can find. It's surprising, but true: rocks can be far more interesting than we give them credit. Some rocks are as old as one billion years!
