

Did'ja Know?

It's easy to try to put someone else down when you don't like what they're saying. What's harder is trying to understand the world from their point of view.

Color That Stuff

These people are angry! They didn't like what Jesus was saying because it mean that they might lose power. Can you color the picture and then calm them down? What would you do to listen to their complaints?

The leaders of the church were angry with Jesus. They didn't like the new things he was teaching about God. They didn't like that he didn't follow their rules. Because they felt so threatened by Jesus, some of them went to Jesus grumbling and complaining. They were trying to trick him into saying something illegal or wrong.

"Who do you think you are, Jesus?" one asked.

Another said, "Yeah! Who said you could do all these new things?"

"Why should we believe what you say about God?" demanded another.

Jesus shook his head. "You won't believe me if I tell you."

Jesus could do and say all these things because he belonged to God. We belong to God, too! So we can share God's words and follow in Jesus' path.

Threatened

When a person feels like another is going to hurt or break down everything.
