A Woman Asks for Help

Jesus was tired. He was hanging out in a far-away country, and thought no one would recognize him there.

"Excuse me, Jesus?" asked a woman.

Jesus frowned. "What do you want?"

"My daughter is sick. Can you heal her?"

"My healing is only for God's special people," Jesus said.

The woman's eyes filled with tears. "I thought God loved all people no matter what. Isn't that what you teach?"

Jesus sighed. "I'm sorry," he said. "I was wrong. And you're right. Because you believe in God's love, I will heal your daughter."

The woman was so happy, she ran home and found that her daughter was all better.

Even though Jesus was God's son, he was also a human being. And sometimes human beings get it wrong.

REMEMBER THIS

JESUS WAS HUMAN

Even though Jesus was God, he was also human. Humans make mistakes, and so did Jesus.
